Building Strong Families FOR KENTUCKY 2016

OUR FOCUS

Family and Consumer Sciences (FCS) Extension is committed to improving the health and well-being of individuals and families in Russell County. To help Kentuckians strengthen their financial, physical, and social well-being, our educational programs focus on:

- Making Healthy Lifestyle Choices that influence health and well-being
- Nurturing Families as they cope with fewer resources and more demands
- Embracing Life as We Age to live independently longer
- Securing Financial Stability in a turbulent economic period
- Promoting Healthy Homes and Communities that recycle, reduce waste, and protect our environment
- Accessing Nutritious Food that is affordable, available, and safe
- Empowering Community Leaders as we all work to sustain and improve our communities

In 2014-2015, Family and Consumer Sciences Extension made 16,552 contacts with Russell County individuals and families.¹

OUR PEOPLE

SPOTLIGHT ON...

COURSE COVERS PARENTING SKILLS

Russell County had 360 cases of reported child abuse in 2012. The FCS program partnered with Russell County Early Child Care Coalition to offer Keys to Great Parenting, a seven-week program that taught 16 parents about the stages of development and the importance of cuddling, talking, and reading, among other topics. Among the changes parents said they would make as result of the program: "Spend more time outside and teach them new things," "Use what I've learned from each session and apply it to everyday," and "Be more aware of the different clues my baby gives me when she needs something."
